

Lo.Renzo is a multinstrumentalist and music therapist based in Italy who combines global bass music with the voice of the Sarangi, a bowed instrument from north India. Sarangi is carved from a single block of wood and it's composed of three main strings and over thirty sympathetic strings which vibrating according to scale. This musical journey is the translation of the path taken by the study of this instrument integrated with many others like fretless guitar, cumbus and charango.

He has released music on Merkaba music, Desert Trax and Outtallectuals and has collaborated as remixer and session musician with artists like Kaya Project, Marya Stark, Pedra Branca, Halfred and many more.

Lo.Renzo is active in several projects: Imran&Lorenzo, fusion of acoustic guitar and sitar, Poan, an acoustic live ambient project based on nature sounds and Jakare, a folktronica project who has released music with Desert trax during last years remixing and collaborating with artists like Liquid Bloom, Porangui, Mose and more.

His live set will lead us through a unique journey moving from dreamlike atmospheres to strong world fusion beats.

Main past gigs: Ozora, Boom, Modem, Tribal Gathering, Own spirit, Psyfi, One love, Shankra, Tree of life, Vibronica and many more all over Europe and Asia.
